Redcape Hotel Group exchanges contract to acquire The Pig ‘N’ Whistle, Redbank Plains Queensland

Redcape Hotel Group Management Ltd, as responsible entity of Redcape Hotel Group (ASX:RDC) (“Redcape”) is pleased to announce that it has exchanged contracts to acquire the Pig ‘N’ Whistle Hotel in Redbank Plains Queensland for a total purchase price of $11.5m, before transaction costs.

The acquisition will be funded from within the Group’s existing debt facility and will take the Redcape portfolio of assets to 33.

A quality leasehold operation located in the high-growth LGA of Ipswich; the venue is a top-ranking Queensland gaming venue with excellent food and beverage operations.

Redcape Hotel Group CEO Dan Brady said: “The acquisition reflects our disciplined approach to driving growth through opportunities that generate strong returns for our Securityholders.”

“While our growth strategy is predominantly focused on freehold assets with alternate land optionality, we also have the appetite to pursue quality value accretive leasehold opportunities that meet our investment criteria and align with our objective of growing and diversifying our earnings.”

“The acquisition will further Redcape’s exposure to the region’s strong projected growth and enable us to positively contribute to Ipswich’s diverse and close-knit community through the provision of jobs, early career training, and quality hospitality experiences.”
